

Club Safeguarding Statement

Last Changed – 10/10/2022

As a club that provides services and classes to young persons and/or adults at risk, we take our safeguarding procedures very seriously. Whilst this document is NOT our safeguarding policy, it does aim to introduce you to our safeguarding mechanisms and acts as our safeguarding statement.

We would ask that you please take a moment to read our safeguarding policy, which is available via our website www.unionkaratedo.com or freely upon request.

1. OUR SAFEGUARDING PROCEDURES

As a club, Union Karate Do take our safeguarding procedures very seriously. Whilst this document aims to briefly bring you up to speed on our safeguarding procedures, it is not a substitute for our safeguarding policy and other related articles, which are available freely upon request.

We have a [full safeguarding policy] in place and all [instructors] are DBS Checked to an enhanced level, with Aaron Iain Blake being appointed as our [welfare officer/safeguarding lead]/

[All Instructors] hold a relevant safeguarding qualification that helps them identify the need for proper safeguarding protocols and deal with any concerns efficiently and effectively.

We would ask that any persons interested in finding out more take the time to read through our safeguarding policy and associated guidelines in full, and raise any questions you may have with our person responsible for safeguarding in point 3.
